

Student Name _____

Nonfiction Book Report

Book Title _____ Book Level: _____

Author _____ Number of pages _____

What is your book about? _____

What are three important things you learned from this book?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

What are three interesting things you learned from this book?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Do you think the author did a good job of presenting the information? _____

Why or why not? _____

Nonfiction books often offer a lot of information in addition to the main text. Check off all of the features in your book. Underline the ones you thought were the most useful. Put a star next to the ones you thought were the most interesting.

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Table of Contents | <input type="checkbox"/> Time line |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Photos and illustrations | <input type="checkbox"/> Charts and Graphs |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Captions | <input type="checkbox"/> Maps |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Section Headings | <input type="checkbox"/> Sidebars |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Index | <input type="checkbox"/> Other Resources to Explore |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Glossary | <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____ |

Fill in the chart with three new words that you learned from this book.

	New Word	Definition
1.	_____	_____ _____
2.	_____	_____ _____
3.	_____	_____ _____

Write about an interesting picture or illustration in your book. Tell what was in the picture and what about it you thought was interesting.

Would you recommend this book? _____ Why or why not?
